Mike Adams is no stranger to long-term investments. Not only has he managed securities portfolios since the last century, he and his wife Pamela have been married over 50 years.

As Mike is fond of saying, “Most financial advisors do not publish their results. We do, and we’re happy to do so!”

He holds a Master’s degree from Carnegie Mellon and a BA from OSU, and is very active in the community, serving on various boards and volunteering his time and expertise to non-profits.

Mike is the host of the weekly radio show “About Money Radio”, which airs in Seattle on KLFE 1590AM, or can be found on YouTube.

Al has been a financial advisor for the past 12 years. His focus has been to grow his clients' assets and help them make the transition into retirement.

He has always had a passion for how portfolios are built, and in joining AFC he plans to increase his knowledge of asset management and portfolio construction. He has a BA in Economics from the University of Massachusetts.

When he is not helping clients, Albert spends his time with his wife and three daughters.

He also loves going to the beach and tries to play golf.
